My Parents Address

This Blackshield Press booklet is formatted as a clean PDF suitable for flipbook deployment. Each page uses short, readable language designed to support guided reading and discussion.

Lesson 1

My home address tells people where I live. It is an important piece of information that helps safe adults guide me home.

"What is one thing I should remember from this page?"

Lesson 2

An address usually includes a house number, street name, city, and state. I can learn it one line at a time.

"How can I practice this idea with a trusted adult?"

Lesson 3

I practice my address at home with a grown-up I trust. I can repeat it, point to it, and say it clearly.

"What safe choice does this page teach me to make?"

Lesson 4

If I need help, I can tell a safe adult my address. That helps the adult know where my family can be reached.

"Why does this information matter in real life?"

Lesson 5

Knowing my address is not about fear. It is about being prepared and wise.

"What words from this page can I say clearly and confidently?"

Practice Page

1. Read the title out loud.
2. Say the main idea in your own words.
3. Review the safety lesson with a trusted adult.
4. Return to this book later and read it again.

Blackshield Reminder

Preparation is a form of protection. Knowledge, memory, and good judgment help children respond with confidence and calm.
