PASSAGES 12

Relationship and Consent

This Blackshield Press booklet is formatted as a clean PDF suitable for flipbook deployment. Each page uses short, readable language designed to support guided reading and discussion.

Lesson 1

Relationships should include respect, honesty, and care. Consent means permission that is clear, willing, and understood.

"What is one thing I should remember from this page?"

Lesson 2

No one should pressure, trick, or force another person into something personal. Respect listens for an honest yes or no.

"How can I practice this idea with a trusted adult?"

Lesson 3

Consent can be taken back. Silence is not the same as agreement. Fear is not agreement either.

"What safe choice does this page teach me to make?"

Lesson 4

Healthy relationships protect dignity. They do not use manipulation, control, or threats.

"Why does this information matter in real life?"

Lesson 5

Understanding consent helps build safe, respectful, and accountable relationships.

"What words from this page can I say clearly and confidently?"

Practice Page

1. Read the title out loud.
2. Say the main idea in your own words.
3. Review the safety lesson with a trusted adult.
4. Return to this book later and read it again.

Blackshield Reminder

Preparation is a form of protection. Knowledge, memory, and good judgment help children respond with confidence and calm.
